TELEGRAMS

STANDARD.

By direct cables via Lisbon.

Madrid, 6th—Perier has declared that Germany has asked Spain to join the Triple Alliance, and say that the negotiations going on with the German Ambassador are only for a commercial treaty.

Paris, 6th—Perier failed to form a Cabinet but Ribot has succeeded as follows:—

Premier and Foreign—Ribot.
Interior—Bourgeois.
Justice—Loubet.
Finance—Rouvier.
War—Freycinet
Marine—Laurent Burdeau.
Public Instruction—Dupuy.
Agriculture—Develle.
Commerce—Siegfred.
Public Works—Viette.

The first impression as to the new Cabinet is favourable.

Berlin, 6th—The famous German electrician, Siemens, has just died, aged 76.

London, 6th—The police arrested today a furious Anarchist named Capt, chief of the plot to resist the extradition of François to France.

The Anarchists have called another meeting, to protest against his extradition, in Trafalgar Square, next Sunday, and the police have given permission, on their promise to behave themselves properly.

Madrid, 6th—The Cortes were opened to-day. The Municipal question was the order of the day. Premier Canovas warmly defended the Government.

Rome, 6th—Opposition to Government is increasing owing to its election abuses. The battle began in the Deputies to-day on the Budget; but the Ministerialists are confident of victory.

There is discord in the Senate about the new members of the House, and two have been refused admission.

St. Petersburg, 7th—Bad news of the harvest from many provinces, where Famine has reappeared. Brigandage is also rampant, but the authorities try to hush it up.

(Per Havas Agency.)

Paris, 6th—Ribot has formed a Cabinet as follows:

Ribot—Premier and Foreign Affairs.
Loubet—Interior.
Rouvier—Finance.
Bourgeois—Justice.
Dufay—Education.
Freycinet—War.
Viette—Public Works.
Siegfried—Commerce.
Davelle—Agriculture.

Washington, 6th—Congress opened to-day. The President's Message is mainly about local affairs and the Nicaragua Canal, which Government will support as likely to be very advantageous to the United States.

(To the "Prensa".)

London, 5th—The Times correspondent in Paris says that even the most important political questions are now shelved for that about the Panama Canal.

The Times correspondent in Brussels says that the Monetary Conference may already be considered a fiasco.

A severe famine in Khiangmai, China, is reported. There were riots at Tchang on Friday.

England, Germany and the United States have agreed to join in restoring order in Samoa.

Some discontent is expressed at the date fixed for opening Parliament.

Michael Davitt's election for North Meath is being contested, owing to the open interference of the clergy in it.

It is denied that President Carnot intends to resign.

Great snow storm in South Wales and North of Scotland, railway traffic partly stopped.

Paris, 5th—The Panama Canal revelations are due exclusively to M. Drumont, author of "La France Juive," and leader of the anti-Semitic movement in France. He says the Jews are a poison which is destroying France.

Vienna, 5th—The better relations between Russia and Austria are due to the Czar's disgust with the Panama Canal and Carmaux affairs.

JAY GOULD'S FORTUNE.

Last week Mr. Jay Gould was gathered to his fathers, and some surprise is expressed in New York that his fortune does not exceed £15,000,000 sterling. Nevertheless it is surprising that a man of obscure origin, who began life with a few dollars, should have been able to accumulate such an amount of wealth. None of the Rothschilds individually has so large a fortune, nor yet Baron Hirsch. There are, indeed, noblemen in England whose estates represent an enormous value, viz—

	Income	Capital value
D. of Westminster..	650,000	20,000 000
D. of Norfolk	400,000	12,000,000
Earl of Derby.....	360,000	11,000,000
Marquis of Bute	360,000	11,000,000
Duke of Bedford....	330,000	10,000,000

But it must be remembered that the above noblemen are not owners; they could not sell their estates, because they are entailed. Nor have we any instances in England of men, in a single life time, accumulating such prodigious fortunes as those of Jay Gould or Vanderbilt. It is a coincidence that both these American millionaires "made their pile" out of railways, and on this subject some hard things have been said of them, but as they are both dead we shall not disturb their bones.

Such enormous fortunes, meantime, are by no means of public benefit: it would be much better if Mr. Gould's fortune were held among 150 wealthy merchants, say £100,000 each. Moreover, the contrasts between stupendous wealth and appalling misery are as striking in New York as they are in London: numbers of families live in cellars, only half-an-hour's walk from the gilded palaces of Fifth Avenue. This it is which causes much social discontent, and if the Jay Goulds and Vanderbilts multiply in the U. States there may be one day a great upheaval in that country.

Perhaps one of the most extraordinary statements with regard to wealth is what we read in the Illustrated London News of Oct. 16th, that Dr. Juarez Celman of Buenos Ayres is believed to have in the Bank of England a sum of £10,000,000 sterling. No other person in the world ever had so large a sum in that bank. The statement, be it observed, is quite in contradicton with what we hear in Buenos Ayres, that poor Dr. Celman has had to sell his house on Paseo Julio and is sunk in absolute poverty. We should not be surprised to learn that the £10,000,000 of the ex-president are either mythical or an exaggeration, tenfold, of the reality. But if the Argentine Government ascertained that Celman had £10,000,000, or even half that sum, in the Bank of England the public would be justified in demanding its embargo.

Notwithstanding the crisis, or rather because of it, an accumulation of wealth among some fifty or sixty persons has been going on in Argentina in the last few years. When the crisis shall have completely passed away some of these persons will find themselves as rich as Monte Cristo, and Buenos Ayres will be able to point to its Goulds and Vanderbilts. The prospect is not a pleasing one, because Protection-tariffs, bounties and monopolies will have produced colossal fortunes at the expense of the community. Sooner or later public indignation will reach such a height that these tariffs and bounties will be swept away, as the people of Paris swept away the Bastille.

REFORM WANTED.

The opposition which Congress makes to the reforms proposed by the Finance Minister is a serious stumbling-block, and shews how defective is the machinery of government, compared with the system in a constitutional monarchy. In England, for example, when the Senate threw out Dr. Romero's proposal to liquidate the National Bank the Government would at once have dissolved Parliament and called for a general election; but in this country the Senators and Deputies keep their seats, and we have no means of turning them out.

If the people had their will we should have had with the accession of Dr. Saenz Peña a totally new Congress, composed of men determined to turn over a new leaf and abjure the errors of the Celman and Pellegrini Administrations. It is admitted on all hands that the country has been sadly misgoverned, and that no salutary amelioration is possible unless a complete change of policy be introduced. Such change must begin with a liquidation of the State Banks, a re-arrangement of the foreign debt and a rigid economy in the national expenditure. No sooner, however, has Dr. Saenz Peña taken his seat as President than Congress shews its hostility, in spite of the strong feeling among the public to support Dr. Romero's measures. This hostility has its natural effect on the market, by causing a sharp rise in the gold premium, since the public views with the utmost alarm the course that events are taking.

Everybody asks, is there no means of closing Congress? But, it seems there is none. In that case we can only appeal to the patriotism of the Senators and Deputies, and beg of them to wind up their session within a week. They see very plainly that the longer Congress remains open the greater will be the anxiety of the nation. Whatever may be their tendencies in favor of State Banks, shinplasters, bounties and fresh taxes we do not doubt that they sincerely wish the welfare of their country, and that they will accede to the popular wish for an immediate dissolution.

They would confer an immense benefit on the country by unanimously handing in their resignation. Then we should be able to start with a new Congress next year, in harmony with Pres. Saenz Peña and his Cabinet, and in a few years the country would emerge from its troubles. This is what we expect from the Honorable Senators and Deputies, and what the republic has a right to demand. When once a Parliament finds itself it opposition to the expressed wish of the country it may be considered morally dead, and the sooner the members of it disappear from the scene the better for all parties.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

LORD MAYOR'S DAY.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Nov. 10th

The Lord Mayor's show yesterday may be characterised as neat, not gaudy. The reception was respectful without enthusiasm. The heavens declared in favour of the new Lord Mayor, contrary to the prognostications of the Meteorological authorities who said "some rain." There was none. "Ergo," according to British logic, it was a fine day. That is all that can be said of it; for though the monuments and church steeples were more or less visible the weather was preparing for a real November fete to-day when lamps have been lit since what ought to have been daylight but for the fog. The banquet at Guildhall was scarcely a success. It was well attended, for turtle soup smells as sweet with or without Mr. Gladstone, and there is a virtue in green fat which opens the hearts of Englishmen to charity and tolerance. No ultra-protestant fanaticism tainted the loving-cup or marred the amenities of the occasion. As for the Prime Minister's absence, it might be accounted for by the doctor's orders; but this excuse will hardly serve for the absence of Lord Rosebery, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Sir George Trevelyan and last not least Mr. John Morley. The chief representatives of the Gladstone administration were the Lords Kimberly, Ripon and Spencer, Sir Charles Russell, Mr Asquith and Mr. Campbell-Bannerman. Earl Spencer told us that the "Howe" might be got off. The Lord Chancellor observed that the Court of Chancery was so improved that property once in might be got out with time, and he looked forward yet to the day when it could be got out soon. The Earl of Kimberly told us the astonishing fact that in the few weeks since the Gladstonians had been in power, only 37 agrarian crimes—exclusive of course of threatening letters—had occurred in Ireland. As for Uganda—which, evil tongues say, influenced Sir Andrew Clark in prescribing for Mr. Gladstone and made more pressing the pressing engagements of Lord Rosebery—Lord Kimberly is of opinion that we might perhaps evacuate that interesting place, and we might stay there; and if anybody asks "why this indecision?" Lord Kimberly replies "the indecision was a legacy from the preceding government, and in cases of foreign policy "continuity" is the strict etiquette. The Gackwar of Baroda, fresh from his visit to seats of British industry in the North and filled with gratitude for the kindness and attention he had received, took the opportunity of sticking nails in the coffins of old Anglo-Indians, by telling us how much good he had been enabled to do in his own State, how many other Indian princes would act equally liberally and beneficially if the nations were better treated and had more power. The Gack war seemed to relish giving us the information that in his State there were already not only water works but village councils, which is more than we have with all our Gladstones. In India there is no Irish question. The Hon. G. E Foster, finance minister of Canada, held up that part of Britain beyond the seas as a pattern of loyalty to the crown and spoke of its usefulness to the empire in case of war—its 5000 miles of coast which could provide sturdy sailors for the Imperial navy and its grand highways which would enable Imperial troops to march to the Pacific. A far-seeing man, that Foster. Lord Ripon had a good deal to say about Colonial Senates or Upper Chambers, as if the Cabinet were looking forward to possibilities and for models for a reformed House of Lords. Mr. Asquith defended the present and still young House of Commons against critics who thought it "too delicately balanced" The Home Secretary pronounced against the "caucus" by upholding the doctrine of a free representation of a free nation and denouncing the foregone conclusions and votes of an automatic and "instructed" meeting of delegates. Lord Esher, the Master of the Rolls, followed Sir Charles Russel in standing up for "the profession." No one, says Lord Esher, asks you to come to the law-courts, but if you do you must pay; otherwise you had better get the family governess to settle your disputes. Lord Esher's speech was in what he himself referred to as "the hot period of the evening."

Lord Mayor Knill acquitted himself as his known good sense would have led us to expect. He spoke briefly and to the point. His show was a long time in starting, keeping us parading the terrace of the N. L. C. till after 4 p.m.; but the afternoon was mild and enjoyable. They say the crowd was not so great as usual. I can only say it took me an hour to thread my way through the slums from Chancery Lane and dodge Fleet Street and the Strand by getting round into Whitehall Place through Spring Gardens and the Horse Guards. People are tired of this show. It is a nuisance that, I fear, will only die with the present regime in the city. Mr. Beaufoi Moore and his Orange friends intended to distinguish themselves by following the Lord Mayor's show with a grand allegorical representation of the Reformation and its blessings. Some of the papers cynically suggested it should be accompanied by Mr. Moore himself as Grand Inquisitor with some of his friends on the rack or illustratng the torments of the thumb - screw. Fortunately, the London police have no decided leanings one way or the other except in favour of the public peace and convenience. Mr. Moore and his allegories were incontinently "run in." Strictly speaking, Mr. Moore's application was refused.

SAN ROQUE DAM.

PROVINCE OF CORDOBA.

Having seen a few days ago in your paper a letter stating that the bursting of this dam was the cause of the inundation at Córdoba a few years ago, in which several lives were lost, and as this is not a fact, as the dam has not burst, but has lately given rise to a lot of controversy in the papers as to its stability, I who have followed the construction from time to time, think that a few details might prove interesting to your readers.

In the midst of the Cordoba mountains about 31 miles from the city is an immense valley in which meet the three rivers named San Roque, Cosquin and Arroyo San Roque. These three rivers from this point form the Rio Primero, which supplies the city of Cordoba with water. At a narrow outlet from this valley, where Rio 1ro. takes its name, is placed the San Roque Dam, built with the object of detaining the water from the above 3 rivers as well as the summer rains which fall in the valley, for irrigation purposes in the dry or winter season.

The measurements of the dam are as follows: foundation 50 feet deep below bed of river and 165 feet thick; dam commencing at bed of river level 97 feet thick by 16 feet at top, and 121 feet high. Close to top of wall there are 2 overflows each 130 feet wide with automatic doors, which keep the water at a maximum height of 115 feet above river bed level,—the length of wall is 530 feet from side to side on top. The dimensions of the section of wall are in conformity with the well known theories of Krants.

In the centre of the dam's outer face, 10 feet above river level, is a circular valve 40 inches in diameter, which can be easily opened or shut by one man even when the lake is full. This is used to supply water for irrigation and for the city of Cordoba.

On the inner face on each side of valve are 2 sluices of quebracho colorado 12 inches thick, 6½ feet high by 5 feet wide and 53 feet from centre to centre, worked by heavy machinery from top of wall, which require 10 hours to open completly. The sluices are used to clean out deposit of sand, stones etc. which may accumulate, and also to empty the lake when required. The weight of valve is 4 tons and the sluices 6 tons each.

The lake when full contains 260 millions tons of water, being the largest in the world; next in volume, come Quaker Bridge and San Mateo dams in the United States with 144 millions tons each.

I therefore think that the people of Cordoba have reason to call for investigation as to the solidity of the San Roque Dam, as not many of the 70,000 inhabitants would have time to get out if the dam burst and these 260 million tons of water came rushing down on them, as the city lies in the bed of the river 830 feet lower than the lake.

About 12 miles from Cordoba there is another small dam with a canal on each side of the river to distribute the water over the extent of 100 square miles round the city of Cordoba, this being the extent of land supposed to be irrigated by these works.

All these works were contracted for by the Cordoba Government on Oct. 25th 1886 with Messrs. Funes and Bialet for the total sum of 775,000$ currency, the provincial government inspector, engineer C. A. Cassafousth, directing the works. Now, as the general rule in this country is that the unforeseen works cost a deal more than the foreseen or projected ones, this San Roque dam was no exception to the rule, for the total cost of the work came up to 4,200,000$ currency.

In 1886 the works were commenced, in 1888 owing to some differences between the provincial government and the contractors, Don Luis Huergo was named to report on the works, which report was favourable. In 1889 some members of the provincial Topographical Department were named to receive the work, rather than which they resigned "en masse." In the same year the writer was named by the Cordoba provincial Government to inspect and receive the works, which I refused to do, as I did not consider the work completed according to contract, and did not wish individually to assume a responsibility that was refused by the Topographical department. In 1890 Sr. Cassafousth was named by the provincial Government to receive the works, which he did, and is now in prison.

In 1891 several articles were published in the local papers calling in doubt the solidity of the Dam, owing to which the National Government appointed Mr. Stavelius to inspect and report on it. This engineer's report was completely against the works; the plans, materials and constructions were bad, and it would be necessary to spend 400,000$ to secure the dam.

Short time after, several engineers belonging to the university published a report with the object of proving several practical and technical errors in engineer Stavelius's report, stating that the alterations proposed by him would injure the wall which, according to their ideas is in a perfect state.

At this stage the lake was ordered to be emptied, and the sluices which were closed for over a year were suddenly opened with 115 feet head of water, and during 5 days the water rushed through the sluices carrying down stones etc., which had formed a deposit in front.

The lake being empty there were discovered several defects, consisting of excavations in the wall of the dam and sluice passages, on seeing which Messrs. Bialet—Cassafousth were taken prisoners and a prosecution initiated against them by the provincial Government.

At this time I was asked by the Government to visit the dam together with the Judge and give my opinion.

I came to the conclusion that even if the contracters were made responsible for the defects visible, I could not detect any criminal neglect on the part of these gentlemen, and I considered the repairs easier to make than is generally supposed. The wall resists a maximum pressure of 17 lbs. per square centimeter, or little more than half the pressure on the Almansa dam, which is 31 lbs. per square centimeter. The greatest defect is in the overflows, which do not slope sufficiently towards the river, but drop the water very abruptly at the foot of the dam.

This should be altered, and I think the best thing to do would be to make a tunnel through the mountains and not allow the water to pass over the dam at all.

The defects in the sluices are caused by the river-bed being higher than their level on the outer side of the dam, which causes a whirlpool inside; also by the sudden opening of the sluices. These can easily be repaired and in future prevented by lowering the river-bed and opening the sluices occasionally to prevent a deposit forming in front of them.

The lime employed has 30 or 35 per cent of hydraulic ingredients, which classifies it as good hydraulic lime, but being rather slow in setting many dangerous filtrations have appeared in the wall. These filtrations could be stopped by repairing with Portland cement the wall on its inner side, with a coating of 5 inches thick, which in its present state is useless, being badly made, with bad sand and cracked all over. The masonry is not badly done; there are certain defects which are of no importance if filtrations be prevented.

The greatest defect in the works is the want of good management and maintenance after their construction.

In fine these works which cost so much and which might produce millions of dollars annually for the province are abandoned; no repairs are made, the sluices are open, and the lake remains as empty as the provincial treasury, and is likely to continue so until the question is properly taken up and attended to by those whose great interests are involved—in whose aid I ask you to publish the foregoing lines.

Victor Rée, C. E.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Our Rosario exchanges contain the following particulars of a horrible murder in Santa Fe. The victim was a poor old woman and the murderer her son. The old woman lived near Puente de Laguna. Her son and his wife occupied a hut in front. The other night the son came home half drunk with several friends. He knocked at the door of his mother's house. The old woman opened the door and seeing her son's condition warmly reprimanded him. The fellow concealed his resentment and went off with his friends to an "almacen" where he became completely drunk. He then returned and murdered his mother. The body of the unfortunate old woman was found next morning in a pool of blood on the threshhold of the door of the hut, with three stabs in her throat and breast. The body was found by the murderer's younger brother, who immediately went and informed the police. We are glad to say that the monster is at present in the hands of the police and is to be brought up immediately for trial.

The practical settlement of the Santiago question has removed an interesting and fertile topic from the columns of our provincial exchanges, which have relapsed into their normal condition of unutterable dullness. Nevertheless Santiago still furnishes food for occasional "pars." There are still a few unextinguished embers in the pile of ashes which remain to mark the local revolutionary conflagration. For instance, the Interventor and the Chief of Police are turning their attention to the assaults, robberies and other outrages which were perpetrated on the outbreak of the revolution. We very much doubt, however, if the authors will ever be caught. Then there is a difficulty about the electoral registers, which are rapidly filling-up. Several names were erased. The Interventor got wind of the business and came down on the guilty parties like a wolf on the fold. The heat in Santiago is so great that the wonder is people have sufficient energy left in them to do anything. The Interventor transacts his business at 5 in the morning, in his pyjamas, with a fan in his hand, and a wet cloth on his head to keep his occiput cool. In the daytime there is not a soul in the streets. The heat is so great that it would be dangerous for anyone to venture out. In summer the Santiagueños, like biscachas, come out at night. There is a band in the plaza and they remain up till all hours listening to Waldeufel's walses.

BEET-CULTIVATION.

Calle Industria, 1546,
Dec. 4th.

Mr. Editor,

In your notice of the Beet Sugar cultivation of to-day you refer to the percentage obtained in Europe not exceeding 7% from the raw material and where the lands are manured for the purpose.

This is correct, but it is not to be implied that this will be the average in this country, as I carried with me to Europe some roots from Pigué which gave 14%, and I have no doubt had the roots been pulled when they averaged 3 to 2½ pounds each in lieu of 6 or 7 kilos, they would have given still more; and so for the statements of Mr. Deputy Alsama are not far in excess, but the first difficulty between the Agriculturist and the factory will be the size and quality of his Beet, the former having but one object in view, viz to deliver 25,000 of any size or description and secure his $150; the factory if they know their business, being to reject the major portion

Had the Bounties been on the quality of Sugar produced all difficulties would have been solved to a point, but no factory in this country will over succeed unless it has a league or two of its own land to fall back upon for agricultural purposes, as Beet is a rotation crop and requires equal study in this respect as well as the analyses of the soil.

As regards its utilization for fattening of cattle, it is the waste pulp which is now used for this purpose, and this is now stored in Germany in silos or made into cakes, and it has a good market value.

If any real business in beet is intended in this country, bounties on the cultivation are superfluous. A factory once established will soon produce supplies apart from its own lands and when it must cultivate its own seed for distribution.

The following statistics taken from "La Sucrerier Indigene" of March 11th, page 232, gives the world's production of sugar for seven years, and goes on to add "that whereas 30 years ago beet sugar only represented one-fifth of the total production of the world it now represents more than one-half of the total consumption." I omit, to save space, details of the whole of the seven years but those of 89-90 give. Beet-sugar 3,500,000 tons and cane-sugar 2,278,000 tons.

From a trade journal I also copy the following—

The Say Sugar Refinery in Paris has received up to the end of Sept. orders from the River Plate for the shipments of the following sugar:—

	Barrels	Cases
Sept.....	9,000	2,700
Oct.....	2,800	1,550
Nov.....	2,200	1,150
Dec	2,200	1,150

Total 16,200 barrels and 6,650 cases.

The Sucrerie Central de France (Cambrai) makes a profit of two to three millions yearly out of beet-sugar and still manages to pay our import duties.

These are facts, and it is absurd to suppose that with our excessive import duty or without it, there is not as fair a margin for business in this sugar as in cane.

Yours truly,
F. Viner Clarke.

QUILMES ANGLICAN CHURCH BAZAAR.

To those who require to get beyond the sombre squares of city bricks and mortar, on the feast of the Immaculate Conception, and to obtain for themselves a thorough "refresco" after the sweltering heat of the week, no spot is so accessible or any trip so easy or inexpensive as that to Quilmes, where, on Thursday and Friday, the Anglicans will hold their bazaar in aid of the new English Church, which is already shewing itself some feet above ground level.

The "locus in quo" is the Quinta of Mr. A. W. Rooke, which is an English garden carefully and lovingly planted. There the eye and sense can enjoy every repose and refreshment from the landscape and from the shade of the extensive avenues and walks, which are now dense in their summer glory, a very vallombrosa of shade and retirement. The gardens are literally dominated by trees and shrubbery, and upon the quinta-house, a model of substantial comfort now embowered in climbing plants, it is not easy to look upon as anything but English.

This bazaar scheme, originally commenced in a small way, has developed in the hands of the Committee, but by reason of the splendid gifts will assume considerable dimensions, and the stalls will be laden with English articles second only in value and extent to those of the British Hospital Bazaar. The wisdom of holding such a bazaar so soon after that last named might be questioned by some, but, after having seen a portion of the gifts destined for the stalls on Thursday and Friday, we could not help saying that the quality of charity like that of mercy "is not strained."

So profuse and handsome are the gifts, especially from England and Old Ireland, that one might quote from the Bard and say:—

"For his bounty,
"There was no Winter: an Autumn t'was
"That grew the more by reaping."

We have already published the names of the stallholders and Committee, which are a warranty of the good conduct of everything connected with it. The difficulties of holding a bazaar at such a place are very great, but all that can reasonably be done, save guaranteeing the attendance necessary and the weather, has been done. The band of the 8th Regiment, gracefully lent by the Minister of War, will be a novelty at an English Fiesta. Weather permitting, the gardens will be illuminated. The bazaar will be opened by Mrs. Sterling at one o'clock on Thursday, and tickets at the remarkable price of one dollar for rail from Central and coach fares to and from the Quinta can be obtained at all Stations and in Librerias.

One fact should be recorded, that is that, owing to gifts of material and goods from leading British houses, the expenses incurred have been very slight, even all the heavy carpentering work has been done by a few members of the Committee, the consequence being that the net results will probably be considerably above the usual percentage of the proceeds of bazaars "Economy" may be quite easy on the subject.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The majority of citizens expressed a poor opinion of the weather yesterday, and with reason; such dull days are not popular in early December. Our rheumatic subscribers groaned awfully all day, and some of them wished they had one foot in the grave. Jupiter Pluvius keept fooling with the barometer all day.

The Senators mustered at 3.15 p.m. yesterday, Dr. Uriburu in the chair. The "Lords" voted the Beetroot Suga. Bounty "right away," as passed by the "Commons." Their lordships then approved the Customs Law, in general; but in "particular" they were kind enough to suppress the 5 per cent on fencing wire and on ploughs, and to reduce the duty on sugar. Their lordships then met as a court of justice in the Judge Pizarro case, and agreed to hear the charges of the Deputies against him on Saturday. House rose at 7 p.m.

The Directors of Public Works and the National Railway Board—Messrs. Pirovano and Araoz—have both resigned.

The "Lads' Welcome" at Barracas holds an Industrial Exhibition to-morrow, opening at 4 p.m. The boys have made all the exhibits, amongst which are Wooden Models, Cardboard Models Fretwork, Painting, Drawing Maps, etc., Hand-writing, Essays, Collection of Stamps in Album, Collection of Scraps in Album, Collection of Wild Flowers pressed and dried, Collection of Curios, Flower in pot, Fern in pot, Animals—Rabbits, Pigeons, Dogs, Birds, Cake making, Jam making, and several other things for which prizes will be awarded. During the evening the prizes will be distributed by Mrs. W. Barnett.

The "English" in Calle Cangallo, has sent round a captivating circular to its numerous customers, announcing astounding bargains (owing to a lucky purchase at home) in all articles of its trade; so dressy young gentlemen had better drop in there and see what they are like.

The Phantom Ship affair is beginning to look unpleasant for the gentleman who launched the craft. The Attorney General says he must be made to disgorge within three days.

Don't forget the Quilmes Bazaar tomorrow. Socially and pecuniarily it is going to be a big success. We had a peep the other day at some of the objects that will to sold in the stalls and our advice to all is: go. The "entrada" to the garden will be one dollar and railway and carriage tickets are on sale at Grant's, Mackern's, etc.

Don't forget the entertainment this evening at the American church. Programme and all details are publishad in another column. Readers on the Southern and Ensenada lines remember that they have late trains this evening, and what is best of all a feast day tomorrow to recover from the "dissipation."

Xmas comes but once a year, and when it comes it brings good cheer for the rich but not always for the poor, who not alone require food but clothing, and this latter is what is most required at present. We, therefore, earnestly request all charitable families to generously send old clothing to the British Consulate, Calle Reconquista No. 365, where the gentlemen of the British and American Benevolent Society will undertake to see the articles fairly distributed amongst the most meritorious cases.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. James S. Dodds of Adela, who, after a painful illness died on Monday evening at his father's residence, 272 Parana. We offer Mr. Dodds and all his esteemed family our sincere condolence in their sad bereavement.

Every man, woman and child in town gave a mental hurrah for the Lord Mayor yesterday on reading his circular to the tramway managers ordering them to at once put a stop to the most shameful and barbarous nuisance ever inflicted on a civilized population—the tooting on the cow-horns by the drivers, which has grown to an outrageous extent of late. In vain have we seen tortured passengers on all the lines protest to the "mayorales," as, by some wooden-headed peculiarity of administration the guards have no authority over the "compadrito" drivers, who do as they please. If the public wish to put down the nuisance effectually, they must help the Lord Mayor in the matter, otherwise, after a few days cessation, it will spring up again. We strongly urge the Lord Mayor to cut out the evil by the root, and abolish the cow-horn "in toto," substituting a whistle or small bell.

The news that Germany is seeking an alliance with Spain, and Russia preparing for the European crash of arms, and approaching Austria in a friendly spirit shows that the bottom is out of the Triple Alliance tub. Some master-hand in the Diplomatic Bus must have brought this change about; but the European papers do not yet seem to know who has been pulling the wires to such effect.

The latest news from Sleepy Hollow is that Governor Cafferata intends to sail in and settle the exasperating tax on cereals question. If he settle it in the right way, he will become the most popular man in the province.

There is another Bicycle race on the cards for Sunday next, and Moron will be the winning post. A large number of competitors is expected, if the weather prove up to the mark.

The tramway horn, which the Lord Mayor has mercifully taken in hand to prevent the whole population going stark mad, is the worst of street noises; but there are others that might well be taken in hand also by his lordship. In London now the suppression of noises in the streets is the great question of the day. The Medical Journal has a powerful article on the subject, in which it says:—"A well-dressed man rushed the other day into a church in Fleet Street, and demanded that the bells should cease ringing, as their noise was driving him mad. What of that? The chief end of what has been called "the age of Moloch" seems to be to drive us all mad. An American visitor to Glasgow is said to have asked his host the other day, "If I happened to be the owner of the Infernal Regions and Glasgow, do you know what I should do?" His host was puzzled. "Sir," said the American, "I should let Glasgow."

Theatre-goer: "The love scene in your play isn't half so natural as it used to be last season. The same people do it too." Manager: "Yes; but the lovers were married a few months ago."

"Does your wife take much exercise?" asked Fenderson of Fogg, whose family is at the seaside. "Exercise!" exclaimed Fogg; "I should say so. She changes her dress six times every day."

Calle Piedad corner of Artes was in a noisy state of snag-up yesterday, as workmen were engaged in erecting the wooden sheebang for the preliminary Chicago Exhibition in Duran's saloons. It is a hideous affair.

The poor hawkers of meat, fruit and vegetables have entered the columns of the press to defend their own cause against the fresh onslaught on them by the city Wiseacres. The hawkers say that their baskets are always kept clean, and that if they are forced to get hand-carts, two thirds of them will either retire from business or be forced to raise the price of meat, and the consumption will fall off and, as a natural consequence, lead to debility and sickness amongst the humbler classes. This is pure fact. The hawkers must be led alone; they are a decent, hardworking class, and of far more use to the population than the Wise Men who want to crush them with fresh taxation.

Some jerked mutton has been shipped to Bahia, to see if the sable consumers there will like it as well as the bovine article they have so long been accustomed to.

Oh! What a pity. Of the 550 live steers which the Ovingdean Grange took to Rio, sixty died of sea sickness on the way. Fine meal for the sharks, who rarely taste good fat beef.

At a dinner given in London in 1861 by Baron Brunow to the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, Herr von Bismarck, who was one of the guests, had a long conversation with Mr. Disraeli, then leader of the Opposition. He then said that he should shortly be obliged to undertake the direction of the Prussian Government; that his first duty would be to reorganize the army: that he would then take the first best pretext to declare war against Austria, to dissolve the Germanic Diet, to overpower the middle and smaller States, and to give a national unity to Germany under the leadership of Prussia. "I am come here," he said, "to say this to the Queen's Ministers." Mr. Disraeli's remark on this extraordinary programme, which was later literally fulfilled, was: "Take care of that man. he means what he says."

The Tribuna of Monday afternoon published an amusing interview with one of the hall porters of the Municipality, who speaks of Lord Mayor Cané pretty much as our friend Robert, in Punch, would speak of Lord Mare Knill, if asked his opinion of him. We gather from the interviewed African that Lord Mayor Cané is at the Intendencia every morning at 6 o'clock, works like a horse till half-past 11, and then goes to breakfast, comes back in an hour and works till 6 p.m. The new Lord Mayor hates bores and never asks them to take a cup of tea or cigar, which his predecessor, Mr. Bollini, was much addicted to, and the visitors worried his soul out. Mr. Cané worries bores as a terrier would rats, and they are only too glad to escape from him.

Two suicides were reported yesterday. A milkman hanged himself and a dead-beat flung himself into Dock Three.

The Bishop of Exeter was constantly annoyed by the intrusion of strangers into his grounds, and he had put up very stringent notices forbidding trespassers. One morning he was walking along in a meditative mood when suddenly two ladies broke through the shrubs and stood awkwardly enough confronting him. They stammered out some excuse, saying they did not know they were in private grounds. His lordship made them a profound bow, pointed to the printed notice, adding, "But perhaps you do not read; however, as you seem to have no scruples, pray go on, go along the paths, into the flower garden, across the lawn, enter the house, visit the drawing room, dining room and study, but let me recommend you not to penetrate into the bed-rooms at this early hour, as the housemaids may not have done their work." The intruders must have wished themselves in another diocese.

We salute our newsy evening colleague El Argentino on its new type and wish it increased prosperity. Hard political fighting agrees with it.

The death of Father Audrit, one of the founders of the Redemptorist Order in this country, is announced. The sad event took place in Germany last month. The deceased clegyman was eminent in many branches of science.

The Uruguay News tells the following sad story:—"Joseph M. Gerad, aged 25, native of Valletta, committed suicide on the evening of the 1st Dec, under the following sad circumstances. In the month of June last Mr. Gerad applied to Dr. Jamieson of the British Hospital, for the position of door porter, then vacant. He had been staying for some weeks at the Sailors' Home and Night Shelter assisted by the United Charities. On seeing Mr. Gerad, Dr. Jamieson at once recognized and told him that he was worthy of a better place, but as he pleaded very earnestly to be taken on trial Dr. Jamieson arranged for him to occupy the vacancy for a month while in the meantime he should look about and get something better to do more suited to his education. Mr. Gerad having been educated at the University of Malta was a very good scholar, being fluent in English, Spanish, French and Latin. On the 22nd Nov. he gave Dr. Jamieson notice that he wished to leave on the 30th., he alleging that he had

Now we wish to talk business with you

NATURALLY you have either a father or mother, uncle or aunt, brother or sister, cousin or "novia" (or novio), boy or girl, (for the baby a nice, indestructible toy-book on cloth or cardboard) or perhaps a friend, to whom you would like to give
A nice Xmas. present!
NATURALLY, also, you think first of everything of giving a nice, well-bound and good book, as there is no better present than a good book.
NATURALLY, also, you want to go and buy that book at a place where you are sure to find a good selection, where prices are fair, where you are treated as a customer ought to be treated, with politeness.
NATURALLY, also, you want to go to a store which is in a central position of the city and which is kept for your convenience not the shopkeeper's. That is the reason why we keep open until 10 every night, because you have no time during the day.
Well, we have the stock (all our gift books are "nuevos flamantes"), our prices are low, we conduct our book-store as it ought to be, and we offer you a nice little extra llapa: A good Atlas for the little ones given away with every sale of $10 or more of Children books.
Respectfully yours, very dull, and steamer agents complain that cargo is not coming forward as fast as expected. Some brokers report a fall of 7s. in freights within the last few days.

There is a rumour current on 'Change that next quarter there will be no emission of Provincial Bank Mortgage Bonos. If this proves true we shall soon see these Bonos at a much higher figure.

The Directors of the Provincial Mortgage Bank have come to the very proper decision that the Cedulas A that have been drawn for amortization and not paid for, shall be accepted by the bank at their par value and as money in all payments made by debtors to the bank.

The Minister of Hacienda has ordered a census of all the civil employees of the Government to be made out; the table will be interesting.

Mr. Ritchie, of Montevideo, was welcomed on 'Change, also Mr. Robinson, sub-Manager of the English Bank of the River Plate, who has just arrived back from England, and who now succeeds Mr. Jones as Manager of the New English Bank of the River Plate.

Mr Christopher Hill, late Manager of the Pacific Railway, took leave of his numerous friends on 'Change to-day. He sails to-morrow in the Elbe. Mr. Hill was one of our most active and popular railway managers, and we all regret his leaving. We hope that he will soon return to the Plate where he is so much and deservedly esteemed.

Wool arrivals continue very heavy; both the Plazas are glutted, and what with the enormous supply of the article and the bad news from Europe, reducing limits of buyers, the market price to-day ruled heavy and closed with a falling tendency. The wool, meantime, moves off and a large business is done every morning.

Gold ruled dull at the second ring, although several brokers, with well-known political affinities, were buying freely. The market closed at 181¼% premium for to-morrow, Saturday, and endof month. Stocks and shares were dull and weak.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the second ring to-day:—

Mr. Shultz is expected to arrive in the Clyde. He will take over the management of the German Bank until Mr. Frederking comes out from Europe.

Parties who pretend to know what is going on say that all the nonsense published in the papers about split in the Ministry and row between the Ministers of Interior and Hacienda is pure "bola" and done merely to keep up the price of gold. Spite, however, of everything, the market looks downward, and the liquidation of the month will, it is thought, be done at lower rates.

The Pacific steamer Potosi sailed from Coronel to-day, and is due in Montevideo on the 15th, and sails same day for Liverpool.

The sale of a valuable site with house in Calle Maipu, alongside Messrs. Moore and Tudor's, is spoken of, but we believe not yet concluded.

H.M.S. Sirius will leave Montevideo on 10th inst. for Falkland Islands, Malvinas, and the Post Master General, Señor Carles, has been notified that Captain Lang is willing to take any mail matter from B. Ayres. The vessel will not arrive at Port Stanley before 24th December.

The local Board of the Pacific Railway have laid before Government the plan of a siding at kil 262½, at which point there are 18,000 acres under cultivation, the yield this year being estimated at close on 4,000 tons of grain. The sidings would save a deal of expense to the settlers.

The City Improvement Works Committee have asked Government for $5,000 to make up plans, reports etc for the Chicago Exhibition.

The new Chamber of Commerce inaugurated last week in Mr. Guerrico's, beautiful house, No. 568 Calle Piedad, is now duly consituted as follows:—

President, Antonio Lanusse; Vice-President, José J. Garcia; Treasurer, Alfredo Benaussse; Secretary, Ernesto Lalanne.

Directors: Andres Traverso, Luis E. Zuberbuhler, Casimiro Polledo, Juan B. Mignaquy, Federico Devoto, Martin Leguinechе, Alejandro Delaye, and Jacinto Moss.

Lawyer: Dr. Felix Martin y Herrera.

A great storm in Asuncion on the night of the 23rd November is reported and the following were the disasters:—

The little steamer Irala sank. Neither crew nor cargo on board at the time.

The steamer Riomini sank and also a flat loaded with honey.

The Pirapó dragged her anchor and was found near Asito. This evening the Ibapiri went to tow her back to her original anchorage.

Canon Terrero, ecclesiastical fiscal, will shortly leave on a pilgrimage to Rome, and during his absence the Revd. Father Lourtet, Chaplain of the Catalinas, will act as fiscal.

Notwithstanding the great depression in the Montevidean market, the auctioneer Don Rafael Ruano has sold the Muñoz property in the Calle 25 de Mayo, Montevideo, No. 315, for $30,890 gold, which gives a price of $74.06 per metre. Buyer, Don Agusto Morales. The basis of the sale was only $22,000 gold, which after all shows a slight revival of property in that most distressful country.

Messrs Rowley and Company have presented to the Montevidean Government the plans, prospectus, estimates, etc. of the new port in the Buceo, and if approved by the Minister of Public Works the contractors will immediately commence work.

Spite of the crisis in Argentine affairs in London the Western Railway Board raised in a day £300,000 in 5% preference shares to make the new extension from Bragado to Lincoln; it is probable that the works of this extension will begin immediately, as everything is ready; the plans and surveys are approved by the Government and the resident engineer, Mr. Adams, will soon have his hands full, as besides making this extension, he is also constructing magnificent deposits in the Plaza Once.

The Pacific steamer Liguria landed Sir William Young and wife. Messrs. Charles Maurice, H. Douglas Prain and third class passengers all at Montevideo, and the following for Buenos Ayres:—

Miss Barr, Mrs. J. B. Hall and infant, Mr. J. A. Smith, Mr. C. E. Lyon, Mr. Donald Fraser, Mr. J. B. Baker, Mr. A. W. Botheras, Miss E. Smith and maid, Mr. J. Higgins, Mr. A. Bellass, Mr. Cameron, Mr. M. Mullen, Mr. H. Wilmson, Mr. Fraser, Mr. Fairhurst, Mr. F. H. Heath, Mr. T. St. John Gebbie.

There is a tremendous law suit now pending in Montevideo. The directors of the Mortgage Bank having sued the Banco Popular de Brazil for 2,000,000 gold dollars for loss and damage. The market is already aware of the dispute between the two Banks. Mr. Dawney's successful business in London to which we adverted in our last was the launching of the San Nicolas Water-works. The following are the particulars:—

San Nicholaa Waterworks Company, Limited. Registered by Ashurst, Morris, Crisp and Co., 17, Throgmorton Avenue E. C., with a capital of £60,000 in £5 shares. Object, to adopt and carry into effect an agreement, expressed to be made between Charles Dawney and Bruce Thornbury of the one part, and this company of the other part, to supply the City of San Nicholas, in the Province of Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic, and the neighbourhood, with water, and to construct and maintain sewage, drainage, and sanitary works of every description in the said Republic. The first signatories are:—

E. Gotto, Hampstead, N. W. I. share, Sir W. Young, Bart, South Eaton Place, S. W. I. do, C. Dawney, Buenos Ayres I, B. Thornbury, 15, St. Swithin's Lane, E. C. I. T. H. Darley, 30, Campden Hill Gardens, W. I, A. Geddes, 2, Stoneleigh Villas, New Southgate I, D. L. Bell, 19, Shanklin Road, Crouch End I.

There has been a great row in the London market about the Central A. Railway, some parties having published in the papers a caution against buying the stock at 75. Mr. Picton very ably defends the company in a letter from which we extract the following:—

"There is no need for recourse to the company's annual reports in order to refute 'Looker-On's' conclusions. A brief glance at his figures, a cursory consultation of Mr. Thomas Skinner, and a little knowledge of the Argentine Republic are all that is requisite.

Firstly, then, a drop in net revenue from £431,000 to £77,000 in two years, followed by a rebound to £92,000 for the succeeding half-year, is surely evidence enough that some quite abnormal influence has been at work on the company's affairs.

Secondly, we gather from Mr. Skinner that for the thirteen years up to 1890 the Central Argentine Railway Ordinary stock yielded an average annual dividend of 7¼ per cent.

And, thirdly, the line traverses a country the resources of which no man can estimate. What Argentina has achieved in the past—leaving her rulers and her Barings and Murrietas and Heinemanns out of account—is a trifle compared with the brilliant future before her; for the very simple reason that the surface of the country's wealth has as yet been barely scratched.

These are some of the reasons, briefly set forth, why Central Argentines look tempting to those who are buying at 75.

Paper Money.

Projectors every now and then start up with plans for curing all the economical evils of society by means of an unlimited issue of inconvertible paper. There is, in truth, a great charm in the idea. To be able to defray the expenses of government without taxation, and, in fine, to make the fortune of the whole community, is a brilliant prospect, when once a man is capable of believing that printing a few characters or bits of paper will do it. The philosopher's stone could not be expected to do more.

The substitution of Paper for metallic currency is a national gain: any further increase of Paper beyond this is but a form of robbery.—John Stuart Mill on Inconvertible Paper Currency.

Paper Money properly means paper made legal tender, and not legally convertible into gold, or anything else, at the pleasure of the holders, or at any given period. No part whatever of the value of such paper money is derived from confidence. It circulates because it is made legal tender, and because the use of a circulating medium is indispensable; and its value, supposing the demand to be constant, is in all cases inversely as the quantity in circulation.—

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the convenience this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind ! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.

The business of Railway and General News Agents being our exclusive avocation, we devote to it unremitting personal attention, with the happy result that in a little over two years we have attained to the foremost position as purveyors of English and American newspapers and magazines in the Argentine Republic.

Our large and daily increasing clientelle will bear testimony to the fact, that in the matter of punctuality and quick despatch we are unrivalled. No matter on what day or at what hour the mails are issued from the Post Office we forward to the provinces the same night, and if not after business hours deliver to our city subscribers at their offices.

We offer the following special and quite exceptional inducements to subscribers.

Subscriptions will be booked for any term from one to twelve months.

Those subscribing for a lengthened period shall be at liberty to cancel same at any time before expiration, and will be refunded whatever sum may be standing to their credit on closing the account.

For the convenience of those who do not wish to subscribe regularly, we will on receipt of a sum from 20 cts. upwards, forward any newspaper or magazine on our list, devoting to such small transactions the same punctuality and care which we bestow on more extensive orders, thereby demonstrating, that for all classes of the British and American community, from the rich estanciero and wealthy city man, to the empleado on a small salary whether in town or camp, we are.

The Newsmen of Buenos Aires.

Our charges are moderate, but our list being too extensive for publication, we will furnish full particulars on application.

We direct attention to our large and unusually varied assortment of Christmas Annuals for which we are now booking orders in advance.

Yule-tide will be the novelty of the season
